

Guiding Questions:

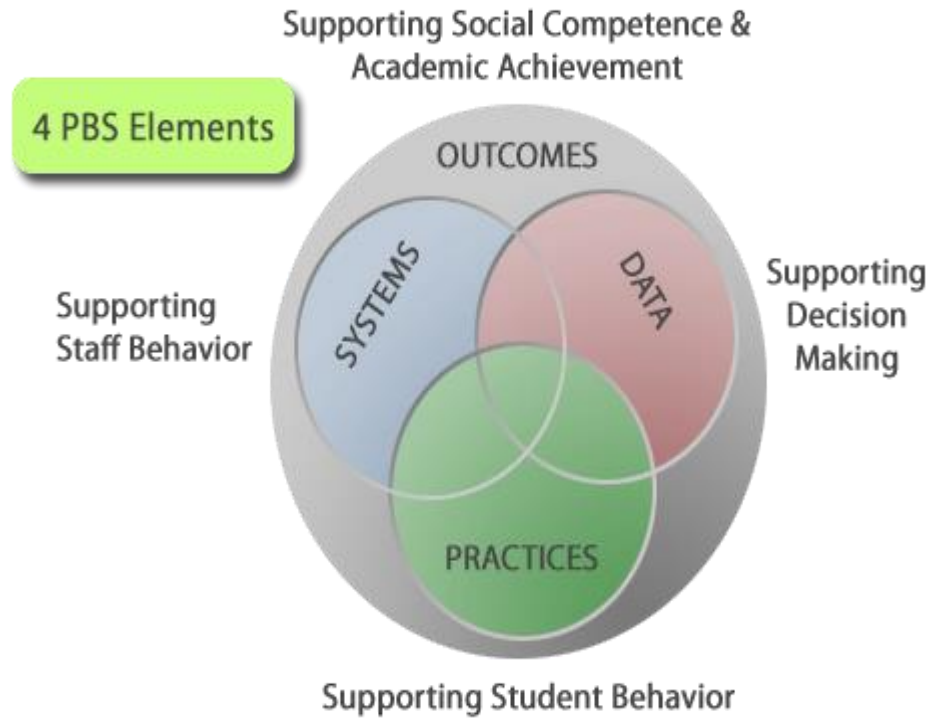

What are your strengths in supporting a system that includes an instructional approach to behavior?

What data do you use in decision making?

How do you support students in their sense of belonging within the school?

How do you see the focus areas manifested within your own environment, and what possible gaps might there be; how can we work to close those gaps?

What do you need? What trainings or support would you like to see?

Connections & Next Steps